

Jessika Cristobal (Montoya) graduated in 2014 with her BFA in Musical Theatre from the American Musical and Dramatic Academy. She studied under many influential people that are in the industry making a name for themselves in theatre, movies, TV and music.

She met the love of her life in her final years at AMDA and had a wonderful opportunity to move back to his childhood home on the beautiful island of Kauai.

She has been in several shows in the short 5 year span of living there. With credits such as Mrs. Banks in Hawaii Children's Theatre Production of Mary Poppins, Hawaii Children's Theatre After Dark Productions as Lady of the Lake in Spamalot, Audrey in Little Shop of Horrors, Diana in Next to Normal, and Kauai Community Plays Productions as Heidi in [title of show], and Rita La Portia in Lucky Stiff. She has taken a year of theatre off to focus on her wedding, but is now happy to say she is back in the game and will be Katherine Plumber in Hawaii Children's Theatre's production of Newsies this fall.

She is also seen throughout the island participating in dinner theatre shows and is a new member of Kauai Voices. She works full time for the family owned and operated business Salty Wahine Gourmet Hawaiian Sea Salts and is learning all about how to run it with her wonderful husband Sean Cristobal. Keep a look out as theatre is her passion and she isn't planning on stopping anytime soon.
